

Paatsa ring fort

The remains of a large forge were also discovered close to the settlement. The forge had burned at least

Further, the large quantities of iron slag and bits of raw iron discovered at the site indicate a close relationship

In the uppermost layer of the burned forge there were discovered four silver Swedish and German coins